

Name of Immigration Related Organization	Purpose	Contact Information	Current Known Needs
Border Community Alliance Operating from Green Valley/Nogales	Border Community Alliance is bridging borders and fostering community through education, collaboration, and cultural exchange.	520.398.3229 Bordercommunityalliance.org
Borderlinks	It was the spirit of the faith-and -conscience based Sanctuary Movement of the 1980s that gave rise to the founding of Border Links. Participants in the borderLinks movement deepen their understanding of Borders, immigration, and social justice. BorderLinks has initiated a micro-lending program, a semester on the border, the migrant journey, and alternative technologies. In 2004 ,BorderLinks purchased a Tucson property at 620 S 6th.	info@borderlinks.org	MVUU selected Borderlinks as a charity at large for 2017-18. Joining a delegation is the primary path for volunteering. There are week-long and weekend delegations for individuals and small groups. Jay Jenkins of the Sierra Vista congregation carries water to border and welcomes persons who plan in advance to join him. This is part of state-wide AZ immigration program.
Casa Alitas	The Alitas Program serves migrant women and children who have left their home countries to escape violence and poverty.	520.591.6390; Alitas@ccs-soaz.org	Often need volunteers at the house, requires brief training, while Spanish speakers nice to have, not required. May need supplies for travelers, check with Casa first.
The Casa Mariposa Community	Seeks to live in right relationship with one another, the community, and the earth through hospitality, simple living, playful spirituality, and peaceful, prophetic action. Its Restoration Project in partnership with Florence Immigrant and Refugee Rights Project offers friendship and support, working with faith-based groups, to those detained through letters and visits, and home hospitality for those just released from detention in Florence and Eloy.	127 N. Palomas Ave., Tucson, AZ 85745. 520.269.6597; email ashley.edgette@gmail.com, for info. To become involved write casamariposa@gmail.com	Has a Wednesday 5 pm silent worship, followed by community meal. Needs home hospitality volunteers for released detainees and volunteers to write letters and visit detainees.
Frontera de Cristo	Presbyterian border ministry, US and Mexico. New Hope Community Center, Agua Prieta (Mex), educational, cultural, and developmental activities; Migrant Resource Center, Douglas, basic physical needs and info. Café Justo; Just Trade Center; Micro Credit; Humanitarian Care (water tanks in Mexico), Immersion Trips and Visits; Volunteer and internships opportunities.	826 11th St., Douglas 85607. 520.364.9257. Mark Adams, Douglas Coordinator. For visits, contact trisha@fronteradecristo.org, also for link to volunteer forms.	Short-term volunteers for the various projects. Must contact office trisha@fronteradecristo.org
HEPAC	HEPAC, Home of Hope and Peace, is a non-profit community center located in the impoverished neighborhood in Nogales. HEPAC primarily helps women and children. Children's Services consist of: meals 5 days a week, a twice-a-year Kids Camps, and educational training on adversity and life skills. Adult programs consists of: elementary and high school education as well life skills in sewing and cooking. In addition, a women's cooperative teaches women how to make necklaces, bags, and other goods so they may support their families. Medallions for those who have died in the desert are also made by the women in the Cooperative.	friendsofhepac@gmail.com	Participate in helping make crafts or in border immersion trips
Humane Borders	Our primary mission is to save desperate people from a horrible death by dehydration and exposure and to create a just and humane environment in the borderlands. We locate our water stations on government and privately owned land with permission from the landowners.	humaneborders.org	Volunteer Your Time: Our water runs are regularly scheduled trips, leaving from Tucson, Phoenix, and Ajo to our water stations in the Sonoran Desert.
Keep Tucson Together	Keep Tucson Together is a biweekly legal clinic that works side by side with community members applying for status or facing deportation and that trains participants to help each other through the immigration court process. In addition, KTT works on a weekly basis to help DACA applicants to complete necessary documentation. (A sub-group of No More Deaths, but operated entirely by volunteers)	Sarah Launius: Volunteer contact slaunius@email.arizona.edu	Volunteers used Thursday evenings starting at 5:00 PM at Pueblo High School to aid DACA applicants. Every 1st and 3rd Saturday, from 2 to 5PM volunteers aid individuals with documentation related to immigration at Southside Presbyterian Church. Spanish not required, but needed on Saturdays.
Kino Initiative	The Kino Border Initiative (KBI) is a binational organization that works in the area of migration and is located in Nogales, Arizona and Nogales, Sonora, Mexico. The KBI's vision is to help make humane, just, workable migration between the U.S. and Mexico a reality.	kinoborderinitiative.org	Currently most of our volunteers work in our migrant aid center (el comedor). For other opportunities, see the Kino website under Get Involved.
Mariposas Sin Fronteras	Mariposas Sin Fronteras is a Tucson, AZ based group that seeks to end the systemic violence and abuse of LGBTQ people held in prison and immigration detention.	See contact information for Casa Mariposa which is related.	Volunteer opportunities: Visits to incarcerated
So. AZ Sanctuary Coalition (the new Sanctuary Movement)	A coalition of faith based groups in Tucson, AZ that stand in solidarity with our neighbors and do the work of sanctuary. Help make known the needs of undocumented immigrants and volunteer organizations that provide support for them.	sazsanctuary@gmail.com	The needs of sanctuary are those of many of the organizations noted here. There are also from time-to-time opportunities to sit at sanctuary churches in support of persons there.

No More Deaths/No Mas Muertes	NMD is a humanitarian organization based in southern Arizona. In 2004, this coalition of community and faith groups was formed and dedicated to stop the deaths of migrants in the desert and to achieving the enactment of a set of Faith-Based Principles for Immigration Reform. Since 2008, the Unitarian Universalist Church of Tucson has been the official ministry.	Tucson Office: 520.333.5699; nomoredeaths.org	AID IN THE DESERT No More Deaths maintains a year-round humanitarian presence in the deserts of southwestern Arizona. Help get migrant belongings back to them, search for disappeared, operate Arivaca Humanitarian Aid office. AID IN MEXICO In northern Sonora, we provide phone calls and first aid to deportees and northbound migrants. ABUSE DOCUMENTATION Volunteers document the abuse, neglect, and mistreatment endured by detainees in short-term Border Patrol custody as well as in the immigration-detention system. We have published three reports: Each includes specific, actionable demands for system change.
The Inn Project	United Methodist Desert Southwest Conference: Helps women/men/children refugees to reach destinations by transfer from overcrowded border centers to two churches in South District. Refugees housed at First UMC, 915 E fourth St, and Christ Church UM, 655 N. Craycroft, Tucson.	Ian and Bonnie Steel 520.647.3202 to volunteer or more info and volunteer link at http://dscumc.org/2016/12/inn-project-update/	Volunteers needed for four hour shifts and sleepover for emergencies: 9 AM-1 PM, 1 PM-5 PM, 5-9 PM and overnight. Training provided.
Puente: Based in Phoenix, AZ	The Puente Human Rights Movement is a grassroots migrant justice organization based in Phoenix, Arizona. Most recently succeeded in having Phoenix Council adopt City ID card.	602.252.1283; Email: Infor@puente.org	Volunteer in Phoenix area: Child care while Puente meetings being held
Samaritans	An organization comprised of people of conscience and faith who render humanitarian aid to migrants in distress in the Tucson Sector of the Arizona/Mexico border. There are both Tucson and Green Valley Samaritans.	www.gvs-samaritans.org tucsonsamaritans.org	Desert Trips: drop water, food; also longer hikes (please attend a training session first) Phone Calls: for deportees in Nogales. Donate supplies: water, food, clothing
Todo Tucson: Located in Tucson area	Organization for/of Migrant Workers working together to obtain immigration justice/worker rights (MVUU approved letter supporting city ID. There is an opportunity to help with child care in winter/spring when more team members in Tucson. This enables more adults to attend TT meetings.)	Facebook: Todo Tucson ID	Volunteer: Every Thursday: at Pueblo High School, for DACA assistance starting at 5:30 PM until 7:30/8 PM Saturdays: 1st & 3rd from 2 to 5 PM at Southside Presbyterian Church to aid with other documentation for immigrants